Biography

Alicia Cho, a talented and emerging artist from Singapore, is currently expanding her artistic horizons as a fine arts student at Lasalle College of the Arts. With a passion for nurturing young talent, Alicia has previously taught art at ARThaus and presently imparts her knowledge at Artsy Buggy Studio. Her artistic journey includes participation in various exhibitions and competitions, most notably earning the title of Finalist in the 6th Animal International Juried Art Competition in January 2023.

Alicia's artistic practice is deeply rooted in her desire to empower others through the limitless potential of dreams and imagination. Inspired by the resilience and companionship of animals, particularly dogs, her artwork often portrays these loyal creatures as symbols of hope and strength. By immortalizing them in her paintings, Alicia not only pays tribute to their unwavering spirit but also reminds us of our own ability to overcome life's challenges.

Alicia Cho aspires to reach new heights in her artistic career by continually refining her skills and expanding her creative vision. She hopes to share her art with a broader audience, fostering a sense of unity and healing within the community through her dream-inspired creations. With a firm belief in the transformative power of art, Alicia aims to inspire others to break through their self-imposed limitations and embrace the endless possibilities that lie within their own imagination.
